BERNARD LAVERTY, having first been satisfactorily identified by the production of his driver's license and duly sworn by the Notary Public, was examined and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. DALE:

Q. Would you state your full name for the record.

A. Bernard J. Lavery, Jr.

Q. Mr. Lavery, your residential address,
please.

A. 195 Highland Street, Marshfield,
Massachusetts.

Q. And can you give me a summary of your educational background, please.

A. High school, one year of college.

Q. And can you give me a summary of your professional experience.

A. Was in real estate for about 30 years, had a brokers license, had a real estate company, also had security company and spent the last probably six years
developing real estate projects -- well,

1 since 2003.

2 Q. What are you currently developing?

3 A. Right now I am just trying to finish off
4 what's left which is the Hibble and
5 Marlborough, everything else is either in
6 bankruptcy court or being worked out
7 through them.

8 Q. And give me the Hibble, what is the 9 Hibble?

10 A. The Hibble is a piece of property on the 11 corner of Main Street and Ocean Street
12 that they're trying to do a 15,000 foot
13 commercial space with the 22 units above
14 it.

15 Q. And Main Street and Ocean Street, where?

16 A. In Hyannis.

17 Q. In Hyannis, got it. And the Marlborough
18 property?

19 A. That is on Robin Hill Road and that is two 20 and a half acres that land-locks in 32
21 acres that we had an agreement to develop
22 jointly and try and get a 150 unit 55 and 23 older community in there and then just
24 sell off the permits.

1 Q. Who owns the Hibble property?

2 A. Myself. Well, it's actually in a trust.
3 It's in an LLC. It's confusing. It's in 4 an LLC.

5 Q. What's the name of the LLC?

6 A. Hibble Realty LLC and the 100 percent
7 membership interest in that is in the name
8 of Vincent J. DiMento, the attorney, and 9 basically really myself and my partner,
10 Robert Bradley, have a future vested
11 interest if and when we get the permits.

12 That was done at the request of 13 LBM. They did the first loan, they did a
14 re-fi loan as -- to do the loan they
15 requested that it go into the LLC with 16 Jimmy DiMento as the sole beneficiary of 17 that and then we would have a future
18 vested interest when it got to the point
19 where we got title to it.

20 Q. Got it.

21 A. And it's the same with Marlborough, they 22 did the same thing when they redid that
23 loan.

24 Q. How much do you owe LMB on the Hibble

1 Realty property?

2 A. That's a court case for down the road.

3 Q. Got it. Is the same true for the
4 Marlborough property?

5 A. No, the Marlborough is pretty clean cut.
6 It was purchased for 6.10, it's probably
7 up around eight-something and it was at 12
8 percent and unless they've gone to 32,
9 which I don't think they have, as far as I
10 know, it was supposed to stay at 12.

11 Q. Got it. You understand that I represent
12 Shamus Holdings?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Shamus Holdings acquired some property in 15 South Boston through foreclosure that was 16 previously owned by an entity called the 17 Foundry Realty, LLC?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And you understand, do you not, that 20 Shamus Holdings filed a bankruptcy case as
21 a result of a pending foreclosure action
22 by LBM Financial?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. I am going to ask you about a group of

1 entities that I believe you're connected
2 to in one way or another and see if you
3 can give me some background on them.

4 655 Corporation, are you
5 connected to 655 Corporation?

6 A. Yes, I am.

7 Q. How so?

8 A. I am 85 percent owner of it, but it's 9 actually in bankruptcy so I don't know if 10 the entity, I don't know, whatever they 11 determine with that, but technically I was 12 85 percent majority owner.

13 Q. Understood. Are you an officer or 14 director of that corporation?

15 A. I was the manager of the LLC and as part
16 of doing the DIP loan LMB requested that I
17 turn over the managementship of the 655
18 Corp to Vincent J. DiMento.

19 Q. Got it. And who is Vincent J. DiMento?

20 A. The attorney.

21 Q. Got it. Frank DiMento's son?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And 655 Corp owns or is attempting to 24 develop and sell real estate where?

1 A. Add 655 West 2nd Street in South Boston.

2 Q. 320 Corporation?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Are you connected to 320 Corporation?

5 A. I am.

6 Q. How so?

7 A. I owned 85 percent of the corporation that 8 owned the property.

9 Q. Are you an officer and/or director?

10 A. I was, correct, and that has been fully 11 developed and sold.

12 Q. And was LBM Financial the lender in that 13 situation?

14 A. They were the lender as far as the initial 15 purchase, they lent the money on that, and
16 then they were taken out by General Bank
17 and then they left in money as equity.

18 Q. Got it. SOS Realty?

19 A. Same thing.

20 Q. SOS Realty owned real estate where?

21 A. In West Roxbury, on Washington Street in 22 West Roxbury.

23 Q. And you were an 85 percent equity owner of 24 that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Who owns the other 15 percent in the other
3 entities we just spoke of?

4 A. Barry Queen.

5 Q. Who is Barry Queen?

6 A. He was a partner, office manager. He was 7 the accountant, the in-house attorney,
8 pretty much did it all.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. He basically managed all the check books,
11 wrote all the checks, did all the AIAs for 12 the withdrawal requests so that was his 13 function throughout the whole time.

14 Q. Foundry Realty LLC --

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. -- what is your connection to that?

17 A. Luckily none. That was owned by Frank
18 Fraine and Aiden Hughes.

19 Q. Who if Frank Fraine?

20 A. He's --

21 Q. What is your relationship to Frank Fraine?

22 A. None. He was a friend of mine for a long
23 time and we've parted ways.

24 Q. Who is Aiden Hughes?

1 A. Who was almost like his confidant, he's
2 like a son to him. He was a developer,
3 bar owner in South Boston. They owned a
4 few restaurants together, did some
5 projects together.

6 Your best bet is to just get the
7 newspaper articles, that would give you a
8 better idea who he is.

9 Q. Got it. But there is no connection then
10 between Foundry Realty and the other three
11 that we've mentioned, SOS, 320 or 655?

12 A. Yes. When we were doing the projects,
13 okay, Frank Fraine, we are all partners.
14 I put the money in, I was the security
15 company and to carry the properties and do
16 it.

17 655 and 320 were originally
18 bought and purchased by Frank Fraine and
19 Aiden Hughes through the T, through Jack
20 Gallagher and the T, and then LBM came in 21 and took them out and General Bank came in 22 and took them out.

23 Q. Got it. So is it fair to say then that
24 655, 320, SOS Realty and Foundry were

1 jointly developing properties?

2 A. Yeah. The Foundry basically was the
3 office space where everything was run out
4 of.

5 You had -- they opened it up
6 when I came into the picture they already
7 owned the Foundry and they had originally
8 bought the Foundry and was financed
9 through Fanuel Market, Frank Viola.

10 Frank wanted to pay it off,
11 that's when Steve Ross came in to pay off
12 Frank Viola.

13 The Foundry was used as the
14 office for all the companies, Platinum
15 Investments which was the company they had 16 in place before I came in that and what
17 they would do is, Platinum Investments,
18 FKB Main and then they had KBF Sales and
19 the Kirsten Corp pretty much all running
20 out of this operation and Barry was 21 running the books on all of them and
22 running all the drawers in different
23 projects.

24 Q. Barry Queen was?

1 A. Barry Queen was, and I think if you looked
2 it up, he was president of the Platinum
3 Investments and probably the FKB Main.

4 So what would happen is the
5 drawers would come in, go into the company
6 and then they would put it into -- take
7 some money out of that and put it into FKB
8 Main which was like a central holding 9 account and then they would pay the 10 vendors out of that and that was only for 11 655 and 320, not West Roxbury.

12 West Roxbury at that time wasn't
13 even really part of it, they came on
14 latter, but the Foundry itself was owned
15 by the Foundry Realty, LLC, Stuart
16 Sojcher, they had him become the manager
17 of the LLC and the beneficiaries were
18 Frank Fraine and Aiden Hughes.

19 Q. When you say "they had him become", you
20 mean Fraine and Hughes?

21 A. Yeah, they asked him to become the 22 manager.

23 Q. Is it true to say that Frank Fraine was 24 directing the operation generally?

1 A. When I came into it he was the key player.
2 He was directing everything that was going
3 on.

4 Q. And you may have already answered this,
5 what was your connection, if any, to On 6 Broadway Corporation?

7 A. None. At one point they were having
8 issues with the city and what was going on
9 and they asked me to become the manager
10 and I said fine, and then I resigned and 11 turned it back over to them when we had 12 our separation.

13 Q. What was your relationship, if any, to 14 Platinum Investment Services?

15 A. None, that was Frank Fraine and Aiden
16 Hughes.

17 Q. What was your relationship to City Scapes?

18 A. City Scapes was the construction company
19 that they had and it was being run by Pat
20 Staretti.

21 When we had our separation,
22 there was four of us that were partner,
23 when we separated we divided up assets.
24 City Scapes was on 320 and I think as a

1 guarantor and 655.

2 Pat Staretti(ph) requested to
3 come off of it because he was no longer
4 part of this side so I took over at that 5 point.

6 Q. FKB Main?

7 A. That was strictly Frank Fraine.

8 Q. And did you say BKF?

9 A. There was an FKB Main which was -- and I
10 could be getting some of the initials
11 wrong because there was so many different
12 entities, I am just going off the top of 13 my head, but I am pretty sure it was FKB
14 Main was the holding company that they put 15 together to have the drawers go into and 16 pay the vendors and contractors.

17 KBF Sales was an entity that
18 they had that they used to put money into 19 or put something or hold something. That 20 was Frank Fraine's and it was actually the 21 initials of his grandkids.

22 Q. Got it. And all of these entities, let me
23 run down the list, Foundry, 655, 320, On
24 Broadway, Platinum, City Scapes, FKB, KBF

1 Sales, they were all headquartered at the
2 Foundry property?

3 A. Correct, and there was also Main Street in 4 Worcester.

5 Q. Again, since you're way ahead of me in
6 terms of knowledge, I think you've already
7 answered this, but the original financing
8 source for these developments, these
9 businesses was the T?

10 A. Yeah, not on all of them, but on some of 11 them. The T, again, if you really want
12 the details, just get the newspaper
13 articles, they've done it, broke it down
14 real well.

15 They were the initial
16 acquisitions, especially like On Broadway
17 because they still have like 2.3 million
18 owed to them on that for a couple of 19 condos, but they came in and then I think
20 on 320 and on 655 they got a loan from an 21 outfit called Wolfpen which was an
22 operation, I believe, that was co-owned by 23 Billy De Petri and Marcello Mallegni.

24 Q. So there was some financing from Wolfpen

1 which paid down --

2 A. No, they took out the T on that when they
3 were having problems, Wolfpen came in and
4 took out the T, I think. This was before
5 I got involved so I am just giving you
6 what I know.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. And then Fraine and Aiden were having
9 trouble with Wolfpen so there was a big
10 argument, fight, so they asked me to come
11 in and pay some money, which I did, and
12 then to get financing to take out Wolfpen
13 which I went ahead and did.

14 As part of that deal, like on
15 655, there was, I think the Wolfpen was 16 owed 2.9, according to their numbers.

17 General Bank requested that we
18 leave in for -- they put in 5.6, we got to 19 leave in 1.2, or something to that effect.

20 So a deal was worked out with
21 LBM and Marcello that he would leave in 22 1.2 as equity in the project, and then
23 General Bank would be there and he would
24 get paid out of the sales.

1 So, what happened was we did a
2 closing, General Bank paid Wolfpen 1.7
3 and change and they left in 1.2 to show
4 the 1.2. We went to a closing where LMB
5 now gave a loan to 655 Corp for 1.2 and we
6 did the HUD and we did all that, and it
7 was, I think the bottom line was like a
8 million one or something that they said
9 that they gave us, and at no time did any
10 checks cross the table.

11 Q. So there was no money, this was the way
12 that you created the appearance of equity
13 in --

14 A. And not only that, we did a letter to the 15 bank saying that we satisfied -- Barry
16 Queen sent the letter to General Bank
17 saying that we had satisfied the 1.2 with 18 LBM, but, in fact --

19 Q. You mean the Wolfpen?

20 A. Yeah, the Wolfpen. We did a loan, said we
21 fully satisfied the Wolfpen 2 point
22 something, but we've got a $1.2 million
23 loan from LBM.

24 If you look at the HUD

1 statement, it clearly shows for them it
2 was only like 1.1 something that was paid
3 and didn't satisfy them and there was
4 never any funds exchanged.

5 Q. So there was no money paid anyway?

6 A. None.

7 Q. So that transaction was a sham, if you
8 will, created only to attempt to
9 illustrate equity in the property so the 10 General Bank would make the loan?

11 A. Absolutely. As part of that 1.2 that was 12 in there we had a deal with General Bank
13 that was a release schedule.

14 what they had done, General Bank
15 and LMB put cross-collateralized loans on 16 everything in sight, which was my house,
17 Frank Fraine's house, Main Street Brewing
18 in Worcester, the Foundry, 420 Corp, just 19 about everything you could think of was 20 cross-collateralized for that 1.2, all
21 right.

22 General Bank and LBM at the time
23 agreed to do a release schedule that as we 24 got to certain benchmarks they would

1 release certain assets.

2 Once we got to a certain point
3 they would release my house, they would
4 release Frank Fraine's house, when we got
5 to another like when the lobby and the
6 elevator were done, they would release The
7 Irish Times, the Foundry, because equity
8 was being built up and their position was 9 secure. So General Bank did what they
10 said they were going to do, LMB refused.

11 Q. Never did?

12 A. Never did.

13 Q. You talked about you were here at some 14 portions, Mr. Lavery, and not at others.
15 When did your involvement in these real
16 estate developments begin?

17 A. 2003.

18 Q. And when did your involvement end?

19 A. About a year and a half later. We
20 actually have a separation agreement. I
21 can get you the dates off of it, I just
22 don't remember off the top of my head.

23 Q. That's all right.

24 MR. DALE: Why don't we mark

1 this as Lavery 3.

2 (EXHIBIT NO. 3 WAS MARKED FOR
3 IDENTIFICATION.)

4 Q. Mr. Lavery, just sake a quick spin
5 through that. What's been marked as 6 Exhibit 3 for you is actually a series of 7 different documents.

8 It's a note, it's a guarantee
9 and it's a mortgage. I am going to ask
10 you about all three, so just take a quick
11 spin through it and tell me if you
12 recognize that document.

13 A. I have seen it many times.

14 Q. Mr. Lavery, as of May 9, 2003 you were an
15 85 percent owner and officer and director
16 of 655 Corporation?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And Barry Queen was the 15 percent
19 minority owner?

20 A. Yeah, and I could be off just by a
21 percentage or something because it was
22 City Scapes had, I think, 1 percent. It
23 was very convoluted, but I can get that 24 for you.

1 Q. Understood, but you were the majority
2 owner?

3 A. I was the majority owner.

4 Q. Mr. Queen was the minority owner?

5 A. Correct, and then there was, City Scapes
6 had some part of it, but I don't know the 7 exact part of it.

8 Q. And with respect to 655, you both had an
9 officer and/or director role?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. If you'll turn to, I think, the fifth page
12 in, a document marked Guarantee. As of 13 May 9th, 2003 you were unconnected to 14 Foundry?

15 A. Yes. The Foundry belonged to Aiden Hughes
16 and Frank Fraine and Stuart was the 17 manager. I might have signed a guarantee.
18 The day we did this, we had a lot of stuff
19 to sign.

20 Q. And I think if you look, you will see that
21 that document was signed by Stuart Sojcher
22 as manager.

23 A. Yes, he was the manager.

24 Q. Do you recognize Stuart Sojcher's

1 signature?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is that it?

4 A. That's it.

5 Q. And he was the manager, to your knowledge,
6 at that time?

7 A. Absolutely.

8 Q. Let me take you back just a bit. You had
9 said that part of the real estate
10 developing financing was that you were
11 after in the spring of 2003 was from 12 General Bank?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And is it true -- and do you recall how 15 big a loan General Bank was proposing to 16 make?

17 A. On 655 Corp, I believe it was $5.6
18 million, 5.6 to 5.8, somewhere in that 19 ballpark.

20 Q. And was one of the requirements of the 21 General Bank loan that 655 Corp pay down
22 some portion of the Wolfpen debt or have 23 an infusion of equity?

24 A. We had to put in $1.2 million, okay, and

1 we had to satisfied the Wolfpen loan.

2 So basically Marcello had agreed
3 to leave in -- General Bank came up with 4 the number 1.2 -- that's what you guys got
5 to leave into the project for us to meet
6 our number ratios to do the loan.

7 So Marcello said, okay, we'll
8 leave in the 1.2 in equity, we'll do a
9 note, you know, go behind the General Bank
10 and we'll cross-collateralize everything
11 in the world and go from there.

12 And that's when we were doing
13 that we said, well, you're tying up a ton
14 of property and there's going to be a ton
15 of equity in this project so because
16 General Bank -- what happened is General
17 Bank cross-collateralized all this stuff
18 too because they wanted to have more
19 security, but they agreed to tie it up for 20 the full length of the term would broke
21 everybody, so that's why they did the 22 release schedule.

23 We worked with Marcello on it
24 and he agreed to put the money in and we

1 said the same concern with him, you know,
2 this is way more collateral than you need
3 for 1.2 especially when this project, you
4 know, within six months is going to be
5 worth a hell of a lot more than it is 6 right now.

7 So they agreed to follow the
8 same guidelines as General Bank as to a
9 release schedule. General Bank did what
10 they were going to do, LBM didn't.

11 Q. And did LBM agree to that release schedule
12 in writing?

13 A. Well, there was this writing going back an 14 forth initially saying they were going to
15 do it I guess, and then when the paperwork
16 came around to being done it was not in 17 there.

18 It might have even been
19 something the day before that they said,
20 no, they weren't going to do it.

21 Again, that was -- it's kind of 22 hard -- this is -- if you look at some of 23 the other track records, you'll see it's 24 kind of hard to walk away from a deal when

1 someone tells you the day before we're not
2 going to do this and you've got all this
3 riding on it at the same time.

4 Q. And let me just identify the two parties
5 here. I think you had said that Wolfpen
6 was a lender, and to your knowledge, was
7 owned by Billy De Petri and Marcello
8 Mallegni?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. LBM was also a lender?

11 A. LBM was a lender, correct, and that, to my
12 knowledge, is owned by Marcello Mallegni,
13 David Mousad -- Duddy -- and Michael
14 Norris.

15 Q. And Duddy Mousad is the chairman of 16 Congress Bank?

17 A. Chairman of Congress Bank, correct.

18 Q. So as of the date of this note, this May 19 9th, 2003, let's just focus on the Foundry
20 property.

21 As of May 9th, 2003 was there a
22 mortgage on the Foundry property in favor
23 of Wolfpen?

24 A. No.

1 Q. As of May 9th, 2003 who held mortgages
2 against the Foundry property, if anybody?

3 A. The only people that had mortgages on the 4 property was Fanuel Financial which is
5 Frank Viola, there was the original
6 mortgage when they bought the property and
7 then Steve Ross was taking him out.

8 Q. So as of May 9th, 2003 did Wolfpen have a
9 mortgage against the 655 Corp property?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And they were owed approximately how much?

12 A. Again, that's up for debate, but according 13 to the numbers it was probably around 2.8,
14 2.9, somewhere around there.

15 There was a big fight over -- it
16 was probably more, but they agreed to take
17 the 2.9 or something to that effect.

18 Q. And was it the case that Wolfpen was 19 willing to take only $1.7 million or so
20 out of the General Bank financing because
21 if the General Bank financing didn't
22 happen, they wouldn't get any money out
23 it?

24 A. Yeah. See, what happened was there was

1 two things: Billy De Petri and Frank
2 Fraine did not get along. There was a big
3 clash and there was going to be a major
4 problem, if you know what I am saying,
5 there was going to be a major problem, so
6 Billy wanted out, Marcello said fine, I'll
7 leave the million-two in and I believe if
8 you check the 1.7 was Billy's half of that
9 loan.

10 Q. Got it. So with respect to these 11 documents, these documents purport to
12 evidence a loan of $1.2 from LBM to 655
13 Corporation on May 9, 2003, right?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And they also purport to evidence a
16 guarantee secured by a mortgage from
17 Foundry Realty, LLC, right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And is it your testimony that on May 9,
20 2003 there was no $1.2 million loan made
21 by LBM to 655 Corporation?

22 A. Yes, there was no consideration unless you
23 consider just him leaving in equity, it
24 was all paper. There was never any funds

1 transferred. I don't believe there was
2 any -- there was no money.

3 I think 1.7 went to Wolfpen and
4 it's only my opinion as far back at LBM
5 they cut a check for 1.2 and gave it to
6 Wolfpen, I don't know if they did that,
7 but no check came for LBM to us to endorse
8 to pay back to them or whatever.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. That didn't happen. Actually, there was
11 no check, I believe. It wasn't 1.2
12 anyhow, it was $1,115, something like
13 that, that was supposed to satisfy that 14 and we were supposed to come up with the 15 other $87-somewhat thousand and there was 16 never a check cut from the company from 17 655 Corp or anybody to cover that.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. DALE: Why don't you go
20 ahead and mark both of these, this one
21 first.

22 (EXHIBIT NOS. 4-5 WERE MARKED
23 FOR IDENTIFICATION.)

24 Q. Mr. Lavery, I am going to show you what's

1 been marked as Exhibit 4. Do you
2 recognize that?

3 A. Oh, sure.

4 Q. What is it?

5 A. It is settlement sheet that we received
6 from General Bank.

7 Q. And you see some handwritten notes?

8 A. Uh, huh.

9 Q. The settlement sheet is from Jeremy Liu to 10 you dated of May 2nd, 2003.

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And there is some handwritten notes one of 13 which next to payoff existing mortgage
14 says there is a parenthetical handwritten
15 note that says equity?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Do you know whose notes those are?

18 A. Barry Queen.

19 Q. These are Barry Queen's notes?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And can you explain what this document
22 means?

23 A. Basically it was settlement for us to pay
24 off the existing mortgage that was there

1 and it's showing that General Bank was
2 going to pay $1,598,500 to Wolfpen and we
3 were going to pay the $1,201,500 to
4 Wolfpen and that would have left us the 5 equity we needed.

6 Q. Got it. Okay. Let me show you Exhibit 5.
7 Do you recognize Exhibit 5?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. What is it?

10 A. It's a letter that we had to send to 11 General Bank telling them that we had 12 satisfied their requirements.

13 Q. And were you aware of this letter before
14 it went out?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you become aware of it afterwards?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And you were involved in the discussions,
19 were you not, where 655 Corp was going to 20 advise General Bank that they had
21 satisfied General Bank's underwriting
22 standards by infusing $1.2 million and
23 paying down the Wolfpen debt?

24 A. Correct.

1 Q. But that wasn't true, was it?

2 A. No. We had worked out a deal with Linda
3 Multon of General Bank, quite honestly she
4 didn't care how we did the 1.2, just that
5 we satisfied it and that's all they were
6 concerned about, didn't care if -- Wolfpen
7 said that they were satisfied, that's all
8 they asked for, so they requesting a
9 letter stating that.

10 So Barry did the letter and we
11 worked out the deal with LBM to leave in 12 the equity and the same thing happened on,
13 I think it was 230 Corp.

14 They didn't -- it was -- we
15 dealt with Linda Moulton who was the 16 president of the bank at the time, dealing 17 with both loans at the same time. They 18 really didn't care, they wanted to do the 19 loans.

20 They were like, look, our guy
21 lends us this, we just need to know, how
22 you satisfy with these guys is up to you.
23 We just need something saying they're
24 satisfied and they might have gotten

1 something from, and I don't know if they
2 have, anything from Wolfpen saying that
3 they were satisfied. I don't know.

4 All she said is send us a
5 letter, how you guys work it out
6 internally is between you guys.

7 Q. And did the General Bank loan closing
8 occur shortly after May 11, 2003?

9 A. I believe so, yes.

10 Q. And do you know whether from that loan
11 closing Wolfpen was paid $1,598,500?

12 A. Yes, I believe they were. You should have
13 some sort of -- do you have the HUD
14 statement from the closing?

15 Q. My understanding is that money was 16 transferred?

17 A. You have to understand, when we did the 18 closing literally the files were from here
19 to here with file folders because of all
20 the additional collaterals.

21 Every property had its own file
22 that was as thick as this to sign.

23 Q. Now, General Bank did not take the Foundry
24 property as collateral, did it?

1 A. I believe it did.

2 Q. Oh, did it?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And did it subsequently discharge?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And what was the benchmark for discharging
7 the General Bank loan against the Foundry
8 property?

9 A. It was the lobby and elevator to be
10 complete. The first two were supposed to 11 have been when we got the building framed
12 and secured, you know, roof on, windows
13 in, everything, they would release the 14 houses and then when we got the elevator,
15 to the point where the elevator was
16 complete and the lobby was complete, it
17 was supposed to release the Foundry, The 18 Irish Times, and I don't know if there was 19 anything else too and then when we got to 20 where units were complete they would
21 release everything.

22 Q. And when you hit that stage of 23 development, General Bank did, in fact,
24 discharge its mortgage against the Foundry

1 property?

2 A. Yes. They discharged my house, Frank's
3 house and when we got to this stuff they
4 discharged the, I believe, The Irish Times
5 and the Foundry.

6 Q. Now, let me go back and ask you, you said
7 there was some writings that were back and
8 forth but nothing was ever settled on?

9 A. All the communications really were between 10 Barry Queen and the bank, Barry Queen and 11 LBM because he basically was the in-house
12 attorney, that's why he did the markings
13 on this because even though it came in 14 addressed to me, he would sit there and,
15 okay, this is equity, this is wrong, this
16 is wrong and then sent it back.

17 Q. And with respect to Exhibit 4, this 18 General Bank fax, do you know whether
19 Barry Queen sent that fax to Linda Molton
20 with those handwritten markings on it?

21 A. Oh, I am sure he did, absolutely.

22 Q. And with respect to the Wolfpen loan, do
23 you know why instead of discharging the 24 Wolfpen mortgage, that mortgage was

1 assigned to On Broadway Corporation?

2 A. Say that one more time.

3 Q. Do you know any reason why instead of the 4 Wolfpen mortgage on the 655 Corporation
5 property being discharged it was assigned
6 to On Broadway Corporation?

7 A. Yes. On Broadway was additional
8 collateral for that loan. I don't know if 9 they put another mortgage on like this on 10 On Broadway.

11 What I think they did was
12 already there, Wolfpen was already there
13 so all they did was just assign that part
14 over.

15 If you look at West Roxbury,
16 SOS, same thing happened except it didn't
17 involve Wolfpen. We bought the West
18 Roxbury property from this group, LBM gave
19 the loan. It was like $3.2 million and it
20 took Framingham Cooperative Bank to get
21 the construction loan, they gave us a
22 construction loan.

23 As part of that, again, we had
24 to leave in equity so Framingham

1 Cooperative out of the closing came, I
2 think to LBM like $1 point-something
3 million and had them leave in $1.7 million
4 and then they subordinated to the new 5 thing.

6 They never discharged that 3.2,
7 they just left it on there and said you
8 only owe us 1.7 out of that and that was
9 agreed between the bank and LBM to do
10 that.

11 Also, at the same time they
12 also, I don't know if it has any relevance
13 or not, but they had an agreement that if
14 anything went wrong that they would buy
15 the loan back from Framingham Cooperative
16 Bank, and it did go wrong and they didn't,
17 so there is a big rift over on that and 18 suits.

19 Q. I can imagine. Sometime after the General
20 Bank loan closing, Pine Banks made a loan
21 to the Foundry, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And that loan, the loan proceeds from that
24 loan were used to pay off you had said --

1 A. Frank Viola and Fanuel Market Financial or 2 something.

3 Q. Fanuel Investors Group referred to as FIG?

4 A. Yes, and it's Frank Viola.

5 Q. And so that was First Mortgage Financing
6 taking out First Mortgage Financing?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Was LBM aware of the Pine Banks loan being 9 made --

10 A. Absolutely.

11 Q. -- from the Foundry?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And how do you know that?

14 A. I went out there and talked to them.

15 Q. Who did you speak to?

16 A. I spoke with Michael and Marcello. I had 17 to wait for about three hours for them to 18 show up.

19 I sat with both of them and I
20 explained to them and everything was rosy
21 at the time, everything was fine, there
22 was no problems on any of the projects,
23 there were no issues.

24 I went up and met with them and

1 said, look, Frank Viola wants to get out,
2 we got a deal with Steve Ross to take him
3 out, they're not really increasing any of 4 the numbers or anything, it's what it is,
5 it's only really a cross-collateral loan
6 and you're fully secured on 655, plus you
7 still got seven other properties that you
8 got on, will you agree to subordinate and 9 they said, yeah, we'll subordinate that
10 because there was no issues at the time.

11 Q. In any event, they were expecting to have 12 to discharge that mortgage when the 13 elevator and lobby were complete?

14 A. Correct. And it was one of the topics we 15 discussed because I said, you know, we've 16 got the elevator and lobby that are almost 17 done.

18 At that point you've got to
19 discharge it anyhow and they agreed to do
20 it and this was just like two or three
21 days before we had to close with Steve.

22 I also know that Stuart had
23 talked to Mike Norris about it and he had 24 said, yes, they would do it and I believe,

1 if I am not mistaken, I was in Steve's
2 office when he called to verify it because
3 Steve wasn't going to loan it until he
4 heard from Mike Norris that they were
5 going to do it, he wasn't just going to 6 take my word for it or Stuart's word for
7 it.

8 So we were in Steve's office
9 when he had called Norris and asked are 10 you going to subordinate and he said,
11 yeah, so we went forward with the closing
12 and then the next day after the closing I
13 went up with the subordination agreement
14 to get it signed.

15 Q. Okay.

16 MR. DALE: Mark that.

17 (EXHIBIT NO. 6 WAS MARKED FOR
18 IDENTIFICATION.)

19 Q. Exhibit No. 6, Mr. Laverty, do you
20 recognize Exhibit No. 6?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Can you tell me what it is?

23 A. It the HUD statement from the 1.2 million.

24 Q. It purports to be a loan closing statement

1 for the may 9th alleged loan closing,
2 right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And I think to your point earlier it
5 purports to say that net of charges and
6 costs and fees, $1,125,725 was supposed to 7 be flowing from LBM to 655 Corp?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And to your knowledge, that never 10 happened?

11 A. I saw no check cross that table.

12 Q. And you recognize that to be Barry Queen's
13 signature on the second page?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And do you recognize that to be Michael
16 Norris' signature on the second page?

17 A. It is.

18 Q. And you were there when he signed it?

19 A. I was there at the closing.

20 Q. You've been very clear that you never saw
21 money change hands at that loan closing?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Do you know whether money ever, in fact,
24 changed hands?

1 A. No, never.

2 Q. You don't think it did?

3 A. I don't think it did, and I think I would 4 have known.

5 Q. I am going to take, if you don't mind, a
6 two minute brake.

7 A. Sure.

8 (THEREUPON, THERE WAS A SHORT
9 RECESS.)

10 BY MR. DALE:

11 Q. Mr. Lavery, I want to thank you for 12 taking the time to come, we appreciate it.
13 I don't have any further questions so I
14 don't know if anybody else here does.

15 MS. POYNOR: I have a couple

16 MR. DALE: Sure

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MS. POYNOR:

18 Q. I was just wondering if you could tell me
19 Steve Ross' role in Pine Bank, if you
20 know.

21 A. Steve Ross was the, what do you call him,
22 almost like the bank. He represented a
23 group of investors and he would do loans.

24 He would go to them and say to

1 them I've got a property, go out and do an
2 appraisal and tell you what he'd be
3 willing to loan against it; he represented
4 investors and his firm would do the
5 closing and then they from that point on
6 they were in charge of services, make sure
7 they get the payment, do all that stuff.

8 Q. He represented investors, to your
9 knowledge, he wasn't part of Pine Bank?

10 A. No, he represented it.

11 Q. Do you know if he was part of the Foundry,
12 if he had any role in the Foundry?

13 A. What do you mean?

14 Q. If he had a financial role in the Foundry?

15 A. No, absolute not.

16 Q. Any stakes in 655?

17 A. Steve Ross was only a banker, had no stake
18 in any property that I had.

19 Q. Did he ever represent 655?

20 A. No. No. The only representation on 655
21 Corp was Barry Queen and at some closings
22 that could have also been Stuart Sojcher.

23 Q. And the Foundry, he had no representation
24 in the Foundry?

1 A. Steve Ross, no. Steve Ross was a lender,
2 that's all he did was he lent the loan, he
3 closed the loan. The only time we heard
4 from Steve Ross is if we were late on a
5 payment, then we'd hear from him.

6 Q. Okay. That's all I have.

7 A. Okay.
